

A Tony Award-winning theater known for innovative, artist-driven productions, Steppenwolf is among Chicago's most acclaimed arts organizations and has helped define Chicago's cultural identity across the globe.

steppenwolf Corporate Arts Council

Align your company with bold, thought-provoking theater and contribute to the vibrancy of what makes Chicago one of the great cities in the country.

steppenwolf Corporate Arts Council

Steppenwolf Invites You to Join the Corporate Arts Council – bringing together a community of smart, innovative companies to connect in a unique, exciting environment.

- Priority access to experiences in the arts you can't get anywhere else. Steppenwolf delivers intimate behind-the-scenes experiences that give you and your guests direct access to Steppenwolf's talented ensemble of actors, playwrights and directors.
- Build a strategic network with Chicago's most influential individuals and entrepreneurs. From Steppenwolf's highly visible Board of Trustees to programming that attracts the city's top talent, your company will connect into a powerful network that supports Steppenwolf.
- Gain total flexibility in how you engage with Steppenwolf. We work with you to customize your event experience to align with your goals.
- Give back to a worthy cause. Steppenwolf is a nationally acclaimed cultural institution dedicated to the best acting on stage and the freshest voices in playwriting. Your contribution directly impacts our mission to foster and support new talent within Steppenwolf.
- Volunteer your time. Corporate Arts Council members can join the Steering Committee, which helps grow and foster new Council members, builds unique programming for the Council throughout the year, and develops mentorship opportunities between the Council and new talent at Steppenwolf.

Get out of the Loop and entertain your top clients, employees and partners at Steppenwolf and enjoy theater that sparks conversation and challenges perceptions.

Starting at $10,000, you will become a valued part of Steppenwolf's Corporate Arts Council and gain access to unique networking and entertaining experiences throughout the year, unlike anything else in the city.

With your support, we can foster excellence in theater and make quality arts accessible to all.

Ensemble member Jim True-Frost with Steppenwolf trustee Ron Mallicoat

“I am continually impressed with Steppenwolf’s strong reputation. With 12 Tony Awards and multiple plays heading to Broadway, the artistic programming is quite simply superb. Steppenwolf is a great place to entertain. The event marketing and artistic staff have done terrific work helping us create unique experiences for our discerning clients. I can’t think of a better venue to engage on issues that matter than Steppenwolf.”

– Ron Mallicoat, Steppenwolf Trustee and Regional President
Wealth Management at The Northern Trust Company

Your membership entitles you to:

Corporate Arts Council Networking Events & Involvement	Invitation to a networking reception with Steppenwolf's Board of Trustees	Entry to breakfast panel discussions with fellow members	Opportunity to join the Corporate Arts Council Steering Committee
Recognition and Visibility	Season-long recognition in play programs, theater signage and website	Logo, text and verbal recognition at different entertaining events	Inclusion in the Corporate Arts Council membership directory
Access to Exciting Entertaining Opportunities	Network at the Annual Corporate Diversity & Inclusion Event	Mingle with VIPs at the opening night dinner celebrations	Impact teens through Steppenwolf for Young Adults opening performance breakfast receptions
	Get involved with Steppenwolf's Young Professionals' Board, the Steppenwolf Associates	Host a private event for your top clients	Reward your employees with a special night out at the theater

To sign up or for more information, contact Megan McGuane, Director of Corporate Relations at 312-654-5697 or email mmcguane@steppenwolf.org.

